

BIOGRAPHY: ANTHONY RIVERA

Lead Vocals/Acoustic Guitar

Anthony Rivera is a country music recording artist and the lead singer for the band Raining Horseshoes. He can take the most melodic country ballad or upbeat honky-tonk tune and make you a part of the song, part of the story and part of the emotion.

This fresh talent is dedicated to keeping country music alive and well in its truest form. He has created new musical ground by combining styles from the past and present into an exciting sound. Whether singing in concert, performing the National Anthem at a rodeo or singing the night away at a country music dance venue, he thoroughly entertains the audience. The power and the sweetness of his voice are delights.

There are voices, which leave a lasting impression on the listening ear, and this voice is one of them. This deeply rich voice is drenched with emotion and sincerity wrapped around lyrics of personal meaning and life experience to which the true country music and rodeo fan can relate.

- Anthony has received the following honors: Orange County Music Awards 2003/2002 Nominee 7th Annual 2001 Temecula Valley
- International Film & Music Festival Music Competition Finalist
- 10th Annual 2000 Los Angeles Music Awards Country Artist of the Year Nominee
- Emerging Artists & Talent in Music (EAT'M) 2000 Conference Featured Artist.